Campaigning

- No campaigning should take place prior to the State Conference.
- No campaign material shall be attached to the walls or other property of the conference facility.
- Time will be provided for delegates to “meet the candidates.”
- Business sessions are reserved for campaign speeches and election of officers. Voting delegates are to sit in a reserved section during these sessions. No campaign hand-out material is permitted during these sessions.
- All local chapters are expected to encourage and observe good taste in the promotion of their candidates so as not to disrupt any planned event of the conference. Because the “public eye” focuses on this event annually, it is absolutely necessary that delegates reflect the conduct expected and desired in “putting our best foot forward.”
- With respect for anti-litter concerns and cost to individuals and local chapters, campaign materials should be held to a minimum. Personal contact and the organization of a campaign develop leadership ability in a candidate to a greater degree than give-away gimmicks.
